

“They don’t make them like they used to.”

Early slots were simple mechanical machines that were slow, had no play options, and outcomes could be manipulated. Today’s machines are controlled by a computer chip, making it impossible to influence the outcome. They are also faster with several play options.

If you want to talk about your gambling, call 1-800-306-6789.